Cinnamon WILD Yala

Cinnamon Wild Yala - Sri Lanka's favourite Luxury Gaming Lodge

Wildlife roams free

Cinnamon Wild Yala is a premium game lodge on the edge of Sri Lanka's famed Yala National Park which has one of the highest leopard densities in the world. It is not a widely known fact that Sri Lanka is one of the best known locations for big game, particularly in the dry zone that houses Yala. The park is home to the elephant, leopard, sloth bear and 44 other mammal species.

Cinnamon Wild Yala is more than a resort; it is comfort redefined within a close distance to the Yala National Park. The rustic elegance of the well appointed rooms will surely transcend your expectations and many a lucky visitor has seen a leopard on the rocks which border the hotel.

Located 288 km from Colombo in the South of Sri Lanka, Cinnamon Wild Yala borders the world-renowned Yala National Park which is home to much of Sri Lanka's endemic wildlife as well as the Asian elephants, leopards, sloth bears, spotted deer, wild boar and a variety of birds.
